

Restoclub Rouge holds benefit concert to help Haïti victims

Wednesday, February 3rd 2010

Moncton – Downtown's Rouge Restoclub is putting together an evening of music to raise money for Haïti's earthquake victims, Tuesday, February 9th at 9 pm.

The Gizzy & Rudy duo will perform an acoustic set. Members of this duo are nurses at George L. Dumont regional hospital and often perform together at various events. They are more than happy to volunteer their talents to this worthy cause.

We all have been affected by this tragedy, explains Restoclub Rouge manager Keith Comeau « Having worked in health care, I know how much every little gesture can bring comfort to people in pain ». Comeau adds « everyone wants to help in any way they can and coming out and giving your support to this special evening is a great way to do it ».

Access to Rouge will be free of charge. Donations will be accepted throughout the evening. You can make a donation today by calling 855-5445 or wait until the night of the show. Please forward this press release to your contacts as we are working hard to make this evening a great success.

For more information or interviews:
Keith Comeau – Gérant du Rouge
855-5445